From Indiana

The editor blushed. "Why, who would, dear, if not a woman?" she asked, and I'm not a speculator, and neither are you, and that's the reason you didn't think of them. No, Mr. Parker, as there is so much pressure, and if you don't mind coming to act as reporter as well as compositor until after tomorrow, and if it isn't too wet—you must have an umbrella—would it be too much bother if you would around to all the shops—stores, I mean—to all the grocers and the butchers and the leather place we passed, the tannery, and if there's one of those places where they bring cattle, would it be too much to ask you to stop there—and at the flour mill, if it isn't too far, and at the dry goods store—and you must take a blank book and a sharpened pencil, and will you price everything, please, and jot down how much things are?"

Orders received, the impetuous Parker was departing on the instant when she stopped him with a little cry. "But you haven't a slender wand, upon him. It bore a cunningly wrought handle, and its fabric was of glistening silk. The foreman, unable to decline it, thanked her awkwardly, and

When he had gone the editor laid her hand on Fiske's arm. "Dear," she said, "do you think you'd take cold if you went over to the hotel and made a note of all the arrivals for the last week and the departures too? I noticed that Mr. Harkness always filled two or three—starks, isn't it?—with them and things about them, and somehow it read very nicely. You must ask the landlord all about them, and if there aren't any, we can take up the same amount of space lamenting the dull times, just as he used to. You see, I've read the Herald faithfully. Isn't it a good thing I always subscribed for it?" She patted Fiske's cheek with her soft hand and laughed gayly into his mild, vague old eyes. "It won't be this scramble to 'fill up' much longer. I have plans, gentlemen, and before long we will print news; and we must buy 'plate matter' instead of patent insides; and I had a talk with the Associated Press people in Rouen, but that's for after while. And I went to the hospital this morning before I left. They wouldn't let me see him again, but they told me all about him, and he's better, and I got Tom to go to the jail, and he saw some of those beasts, and I can do a column of description besides an editorial about them, and I will be fierce enough to suit Carlow, you may believe that. And I've been talking to Senator Burns—that is, listening to Senator Burns, which is much stupider—and I think I can do an article on national politics. I'm not very well up on local issues yet, and I—" She broke off suddenly. "There, I think we can get out tomorrow's number without any trouble. By the time you get back from the hotel, father, I'll have half my—my stuff written—written up! I mean. Take your big umbrella and go, dear, and please ask at the express office if a typewriter has come for me."

She laughed again with sheer delight, like a child, and ran to a corner and got the cotton umbrella and placed it in the old man's hand. As he reached the door she called after him, "Wait!" and went to him and knelt before him and, with the humblest, proudest grace in the world, turned up his trousers to keep them from the mud. Ross Schofield had never considered Mr. Fiske a particularly sacred sort of person, but he did from that moment. "The old man made some timid protest at the girl's action, but she answered: 'The great ladies used to buckle the Chevalier Bayard's spurs for him, and you're a great deal nicer than the Chev—You haven't any rubbers! I don't believe any of you have any rubbers!'" and not until both Fiske and Mr. Schofield had promised to purchase overshoes at once and in the meantime not to step in any puddles would she let the former depart upon his errand. He crossed the square with the strangest, jauntiest step ever seen in Plattville. Solomon Tibbs had a warm argument with Miss Selina as to his identity, Miss Selina maintaining that the figure under the big umbrella—only the legs and coat tails were visible to them—was that of a stranger, probably an Englishman.

In the Herald office the editor turned, smiling, to the paper's remaining vassal. "Mr. Schofield, I heard some talk in Rouen of an oil company that had been formed to prospect for kerosene in Carlow county. Do you know anything about it?"

Ross, surfeited with honor, terror, and possessed by a sweet distress at finding himself tete-a-tete with the lady, looked at the wall and replied, "Oh, it's that Eph Watts' foolishness."

"Do you know if they have begun to dig for it yet?"

"Ma'am?" said Ross.

"Have they begun the diggings yet?"

"No, ma'am, I think not. They've got a contraption fixed up about three miles south. I don't reckon they've begun yet, hardly. They're getting the machinery in place. I heard Eph say they'd begin to bore—dig, I mean, ma'am; I meant to say dig." He stopped, utterly confused and unhappy, and she understood his manly purpose and knew him for a gentleman whom she liked.

"You mustn't be too much surprised," she said, "but in spite of my ignorance about such things I mean to devote a good deal of space to the oil company. It may come to be of great importance to Carlow. We won't go into it in tomorrow's paper beyond an item or so, but do you think you could possibly find Mr. Watts and ask him for some information as to their progress and if it would be too much trouble for him to call here tomorrow afternoon or the day after? I want him to give me an interview if he will. Tell him, please, he will very greatly oblige us."

"Oh, he'll come all right," answered her companion quickly. "I'll take Tibbs' buggy and go down there right off. Eph won't lose no time getting here."

And with this encouraging assurance he was flying forth when he, like the others, was detained by her solicitous care. She was a born mother. He protested that in the buggy he would be perfectly sheltered. Besides, there wasn't another umbrella about the place. He liked to get wet anyway; had always loved rain. The end of it was that he went away in a sort of tremor wearing his rain cloak over his shoulders, which garment, as it covered its owner completely when she wore it, hung almost to his knees. He darted around a corner, and there, breathing deeply, tenderly removed it, then borrowing paper and cord at a neighboring store wrapped it neatly and stole back to the printing office, on the ground floor of the Herald building, and left the package in the hands of Bud Tipworthy, charging him to care for it as for his own life and not to open it, but if the lady so much as set one foot out of doors before his return to hand it to her with the message, "He borrowed another of J. Harkness'."

Left alone, the lady went to the desk and stood for a time looking gravely at Harkness' chair. She touched it gently, as she had touched it once before that morning, and then she spoke to it as if he were sitting there and as she would not have spoken had he been sitting there.

"You didn't want gratitude, did you?" she whispered, with sad lips.

AN ENTIRELY NEW GROWTH

"My hair was getting very thin. Every morning I would comb out great handfuls of it. Nothing that I used stopped its falling out or helped it until, by the advice of a friend, I tried Rexall '93' Hair Tonic. From the very beginning the tonic was beneficial. Not only has it stopped my hair from falling, but it has produced an entirely new growth. My hair is now soft and glossy, where before it was harsh, brittle and dull. BUSINESS IS PARALYZED

Martial Law Practically Disorganizes
Commerce at Important
Manchurian Port.

Severe Land Engagement at Chong
Ju Is Reported by Gen.
Kuropatkin.

New Chwang, March 30.—"The Russians have ordered the American flag on the correspondents' mess to be hauled down. The proclamation of martial law completely paralyzes the whole commerce of this port."

St. Petersburg, March 30.—The emperor has received a dispatch from Gen. Kuropatkin giving a lengthy report from Gen. Mishchenko which says that an important engagement took place near the town of Chang Ju, in which the Russians were defeated, retiring in perfect order. The Japanese suffered heavily, but the Russian losses are not stated.

Cavalry and infantry on both sides were engaged. The Russians occupied a commanding position. The Japanese fought gallantly, but owing to their heavy losses were unable to occupy the position abandoned by the Russians. Gen. Kuropatkin's report is as follows:

"I have the honor respectfully to communicate to your majesty the report of Gen. Mishchenko, dated March 25 at 10 p. m. which says: 'For three consecutive days our small outposts attempted to draw the Japanese cavalry into action, but their patrols, after contact was established, retired beyond Chong Ju (about 50 miles north-west of Ping Yang).'

"Having learned that four squadrons of the enemy were posted five versts beyond Chong Ju, on March 27, six companies marched toward Kasan and on March 28 reached Chong Ju at 10:30 a. m. As soon as our scouts approached the town the enemy opened fire from behind the wall. Two squadrons promptly dismounted and occupied the heights 600 yards distant. An engagement ensued.

"In the town a company of infantry and a squadron of cavalry was lying in ambush. Our men were reinforced by three companies and attacked the Japanese with a cross-fire. Notwithstanding this, and our commanding position, the Japanese gallantly held their ground and it was only after a fierce fight of half an hour's duration that the Japanese ceased fire and sought refuge in the houses. The Japanese hoisted the red cross flag at two points.

"Soon afterwards three squadrons of the enemy were seen advancing along the Kasan road at full gallop toward town, which two of the squadron succeeded in entering while the third fell back in disorder under repeated volleys from our troops. A number of men and horses were seen to fall.

"For an hour afterward our companies continued to fire on the Japanese in the town, preventing them from leaving the streets and houses.

"An hour and a half after the beginning of the engagement four companies were seen on the Kasan road hastening to the attack. I gave the order to mount, and the entire force, with a covering squadron, advanced in perfect order and formed in line behind the hill. The wounded were placed in front and the retirement was carried out with the deliberation of a parade.

"The Japanese squadron which was thrown into disorder was evidently unable to occupy the hill which we had just evacuated, and their infantry arrived too late.

"The detachment protecting our rear guard arrived quietly at Kasan where we halted for two hours in order to give attention to our wounded. At 9 p. m. our force reached Noo San.

"It is supposed that the Japanese had heavy losses in men and horses. On our side, unfortunately, three officers were severely wounded—Stepanoff and Androekko in the chest, and Vaselevitch in the stomach. Schilnikoff was less seriously wounded in the arm, but did not leave the field. Three cosacs were killed and twelve were wounded including five seriously.

"Gen. Mishchenko bears witness to the excellent conduct and gallantry of the officers and cosacs, and especially praises the third company of the Arginsk regiment, commanded by Krasnostanoff."

FORCES MARSHALLING

An Estimate of the Two Opposing Land Armies.

London, March 30.—No Japanese reports of the land operations in Korea have as yet reached here and there is much speculation as to the size of the opposing armies regarding which there is no reliable information. A correspondent at Russian headquarters in Mukden, telegraphs that according to reports received there about 10,000 Japanese have crossed the river at Chin-Changau and 5,000 have advanced north from Chong-Ju. A Shanghai correspondent asserts that practically the whole Japanese army in Korea consisting of 100,000 men, is concentrated at Pak-Chen and Anju, only small detachments being left in southern Korea to maintain communication.

A St. Petersburg special says that a Russian division of 25,000 men from southern Ussuri is advancing in two columns through Korea. The main column, coming along the east coast road, reached Pak-Chang, 180 miles from the Tumen river and the flanking column, consisting of cosacs and mounted artillery, coming along the valley of the Tumen river towards its source, has reached the coast of Lake Tadjik. This column reports that the Japanese are advancing north from Gensan and that their advance guard is encamped at Chong Ping. It is probable, however, that none of these reports can be accepted as authentic.

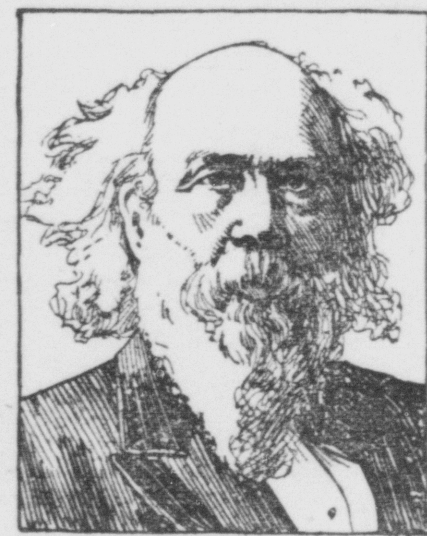

Coming Out of Hiding.

Seoul, March 30.—Many Korean officials who were formerly implicated in pro-Russian movements and who remained in hiding during the recent stay here of Marquis Ito are reported now to be reappearing. They are confident and have been assured that drastic reforms for the purging of Korean official circles are not imminent.

THE SOLE SURVIVOR

Members of Ill-Fated Arctic Party Reduced to One.

Manistique, Mich., March 30.—With the death here of Frank E. Manson it is believed there is but one survivor of the ill-fated Arctic expedition commanded by De Long. This is Rear Admiral Geo. W. Melville. Manson's death was due to his experiences in the Arctic. Long crippled with rheumatism, since five years ago, when he was stricken with paralysis, he had been practically helpless. Aside from a medal of honor, congress some years ago granted him a pension of $30, which only a few weeks ago was increased to $72 a month.

Old Kentucky Feudist Killed.

Pineville, Ky., March 30.—Richard Jenkins, known as "Dead Dick," has been shot and instantly killed on Buck creek, twenty miles from here, by unknown parties, from ambush. Jenkins played a prominent part in the feuds which raged so desperately in the mountains several years. He is credited with having killed eight men, but for the last few years had been living a quiet and peaceful life. He was well known throughout the mountain section of southeastern Kentucky.

Plucky Sheriff Repulses Mob.

Lacrosse, Wis., March 30.—Following an alleged assault by Charles Powers, a Milwaukee road brakeman, upon Inez Drake, aged ten years, at Lanesboro, Fillmore county, Minn., a mob of 200 infuriated citizens stormed the village jail in an attempt to drag forth and lynch the prisoner. The mob was repulsed by Marshal Galligan and a band of armed deputies. The girl is reported to be in a dying condition.

Burton Harrison Dead.

Washington, March 30.—Burton Norvell Harrison, a lawyer of New York and husband of Mrs. Burton Harrison, the authoress, and father of Congressman Harrison of New York city, died here last night, aged sixty-five years. During the war Mr. Harrison was private secretary to Jefferson Davis, the president of the southern confederacy, remaining with him to the end of the war.

Little Wabash on Rampage.

Carmi, Ill., March 30.—The Little Wabash river is rising at the rate of an inch an hour and the gauge shows a foot less than the highest water ever known. The entire east side is under water. Hundreds of families are homeless and the loss will reach hundreds of thousands of dollars. The flood is expected to be the greatest ever experienced by Carmi people.

Bill Cutting of Rural

COMMITTEE FAVORS IT

Senate Committee Reports on the Postoffice Bill With Some Important Amendments.

Among These Is One Which Permits
Rural Mail Carriers to Do Side Stunts.

Washington, March 30.—After two days' consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill, the senate committee reported it last night and it was taken up in the senate today. The bill reported does not include all the amendments made by the senate committee on account of the late session held in order to complete the measure. A "dummy" bill was reported while the clerks prepared the measure for the public printer. On account of its incomplete state the exact amount of the increase in the bill cannot be given, though it is said the bill carries not more than $1,000,000 over the bill as passed by the house, except for an emergency incorporated in the bill. The house bill provides for the rental of the Pennsylvania railroad site in New York city for postoffice purposes but the senate committee decided that it would be better business policy to buy the site. Therefore an appropriation of $2,000,000 is made for that purpose.

Among the important amendments to the bill was the following: The salaries of rural free delivery carriers are fixed at $720 a year and the carriers are permitted to carry merchandise for hire and receive subscriptions for and deliver newspapers and periodicals so long as this occupation does not interfere with the proper discharge of their duties. It is stipulated, however, that the carriers shall not discriminate against any newspaper which desires to avail itself of the privilege of employing them.

Senator Clay's amendment increasing the salary of the purchasing agent for the postoffice department to $4,000 and requiring that all supplies must be bought by competitive bids, the contracts to be given to the lowest bidders, and that a schedule of the bids must be sent to congress annually, was adopted. The committee adopted an amendment for the re-transfer of the free delivery in cities to the first assistant postmaster general's division, instead of leaving it with the fourth assistant. The senate committee provides for the purchase of cancelling machines instead of purchase alone as provided by the house bill.

REMARKABLE SITUATION

For Once the Floods of House Oratory
Have Ceased

Washington, March 30.—For the want of speakers general debate on the sundry civil appropriation bill in the house was closed several hours before the time agreed on and the bill was read for amendment. Seventy-nine pages were disposed of, the only important amendment adopted being one providing for an initial appropriation of $500,000 for the completion of the capitol building according to the original design.

Washington, March 30.—The bill authorizing the erection of an additional executive department building in Washington was given the subject of spirited debate in the senate and after several hours' debate it remained unacted upon. Senators divided largely on the question of location but there also was talk as to the necessity of better office accommodations for the senate and the supreme court. There was renewed effort to pass the bill prohibiting the misbranding of salmon, but owing to the opposition of senators who hold that the bill is calculated to interfere with the rights of individual states under the guise of an effort to control interstate commerce a vote was not reached.

Victim of Too Much Study.
Milwaukee, March 30.—Harold Sturart Peterson, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and formerly one of its most popular students, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head with a revolver. He was twenty-three years old. The parents of the young man say that suicide was the culmination of a strain caused by the taking up of too much work at the university.

Held on Charge of Arson.
Flora, Ind., March 30.—Samuel Michaels and John Bowen, near Burlington, have been jointly indicted by the grand jury for arson. The defendants are the principals who aroused so much bitter feeling last September, it being alleged that they dynamited the fine home of Aaron Schock, in Burlington township.

Will Retire From Politics.
London, March 30.—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, writing to the chairman of his committee at West Bristol, which constituency he represents, says that while he does not anticipate an early dissolution of parliament he has definitely decided to retire from active politics.

RHEUMATISM

AN INDESCRIBABLE TORTURE

Because Rheumatism sometimes comes on suddenly it doesn't prove that it is a chance disease or one due to accidental causes. It takes time for it to develop, and is at work in the system long before any symptoms are felt. The blood is the first point of attack, and the poisonous acids that cause the aches and pains are then distributed through the circulation to different parts of the system, and settle in joints, muscles and nerves; and when the system is in this condition it needs only some exciting cause like exposure to night air, damp, chilly weather, or the cold, bleak winds of winter, to arouse the slumbering poisons and bring on Rheumatism. The severity of the attack depends upon the amount of acid in the blood and the quantity of acid matter in the joints and muscles. Some people are almost helpless from the first, while others have occasional spells or are uncomfortable, restless, nervous and half sick all the time from the nagging aches and pains. Rheumatism is a disagreeable companion even in its mildest form. It grows worse as we grow older, and frequently stiffens the joints, draws the muscles out of shape and breaks down the nervous system. A disease that originates in the blood, as Rheumatism does, cannot be cured with external remedies like liniments and plasters; such things scatter the pains or drive them to some other part of the body, but do not touch the disease or improve the condition of the blood. The thin acid blood must be restored to its normal purity and strength, so that all poisonous substances may be carried out of the system, and no medicine accomplishes this in so short a time as S.S.S., which not only neutralizes the acids and counteracts the poisons, but builds up the general health at the same time.

WATER CO. WINS SUIT.

Supreme Court Handed Down Decision Today.

Special to the REPUBLICAN.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., March 30.—The Supreme Court today handed down its opinion in the Seymour Water Company case, reversing the judgment of the circuit court. The court held:

That the complaint is not sufficient to cancel contract since the city had an adequate remedy at law by mandamus to compel the Water Company to comply with the contract and that the court of equity could not be invoked to compel a cessation of the contract unless it was shown that no remedy at law could be had.

There was no dissenting opinion, the court being unanimous.

Hon. J. O. Hendon, who has undertaken the difficult task of being the Hearst boom up by hand in this State, says Hearst is "the logical candidate." Can anybody tell what Mr. Henderson means? He certainly cannot mean that Hearst is the greatest logician in the democratic party, for everybody knows he is hysterical rather than logical. Nor can he mean that all democratic roads lead to Hearst, for most of them lead straight away from him. By the way, if Mr. Henderson really thinks Hearst is the logical candidate why does not Mr. Henderson's Kokomo Dispatch support him? The boomer of a logical candidate ought to be logical himself. — Journal.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

Conductor Bud Brown is reported much better today.

Samuel Hodapp, of the B. & O. S-W. who was hurt quite badly a few days ago is back at work again.

The B. & O. and Panhandle roads are running trains through again today, but the Southern Indiana will not get trains through before Friday.

Mitchell will have a test hole put down to see what is under us and the Lehigh Portland Cement Co. is going to do it. The contract has been let and work will begin as soon as the machinery can be shipped in. The hole will be drilled down to a depth of between 1500 and 2000 feet and the expense of such a hole will probably be between $7,000 and $8,000.—Mitchell Commercial.

High Waters.

At some places according to reports, White river was higher the past few days than it was in 1897. At Tunnel it is said to have been six inches higher and seven inches higher at Rivervale and similar reports came from further down the river. But at Rockford the water was not as high by about twelve inches as in 1897. At the pumping station at Bedford it reached the same height that it did in 1897.

Primary Tomorrow.

The republican city primary election occurs tomorrow afternoon. Polls open from 1 p. m. to 8 p. m.

There is a voting place in each of the five wards of the city, which places are noted in another column.

All republicans should get out and vote. No election is more important than the primary.

Lost a Colt.

Master Norbourne Short, son of R. R. Short, of Redding township lost a two-year-old filly Tuesday evening. The colt was being broken to work and fell heavily, injuring itself so that it died a short time afterward.

No Honey Shortage.

Thirty per cent. of the honey bees in Connecticut have been killed by the hard winter. But that will not make a shortage in the honey crop any more than the failure of sap to run will affect the "pure Vermont maple sugar." New England was ever inventive.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or bronchitis which cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for IT TODAY—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

FEEL POORLY.

As spring approaches you commence to feel poorly and you wonder at the cause. You feel tired and out of sorts. Your head aches, you have no appetite and the blood is impure. Postal Card Too Small

Mrs. A. T. Neal, of Maryville, Mo., Says:

"A postal card is too small to begin my praise of your wonderful preparation, Paracamp. My first experience with Paracamp was about one year ago; my little girl was very badly burned with hot grease. One of my kind neighbors recommended Paracamp and gave me what she had on hand, as we live in the country and could not immediately get it from town. The first application gave relief. We used about three bottles and the burns were healed up nicely, although they were very bad burns. My little girl was playing and fell knocking the grease in her lap; she was burned on both legs from the knees almost to her hips, and in removing her clothing a great deal of the skin came off, leaving her legs perfectly raw. I have used Paracamp for a great many things since then, and never like to be without it in my house. I have quite a family and find it a great task to write, but I hope my letter will reach you in time, as I am a great friend of Paracamp. I could tell you more of its good works but guess this will be enough for this time. I am always willing to sound the praise of a valuable remedy."

This letter should convince all mothers of the necessity for keeping in their homes a bottle of Paracamp. This wonderful remedy is needed almost every day in the year. It not only relieves pain quickly but it heals all manner of wounds without leaving ugly scars. Get a bottle of Paracamp today, and if it fails to do what we claim for it and if you don't find it is the most useful remedy you have ever had in your home, we will refund your money.

All good druggists sell it in 25 cent, 50 cent, and $1.00 bottles. The Paracamp Company, Louisville, Ky., U. S. A.

BE SURE TO RING OFF.

Notice to All Subscribers to the Telephone Company.

After much unavoidable delay the Seymour Home Telephone Company this morning completed the work of installing their new switch board at the exchange. They appreciate the patience of our citizens during the vexing delays incident to making the change and want to assure them that the improved service will more than repay them.

The new system has the lamp system. That is, when a subscriber calls up, a white light appears at his number on the board and burns until the operator answers the call and makes the connection. When he is through talking and rings off a red light appears as the signal to the operator that the subscriber is through talking. This red signal is the only means the operator has of knowing when the subscriber is through talking so it is ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY TO RING OFF. In calling for points out town always ask for the long distance operator as this operator has charge of all the outside lines and she alone makes these connections.

In a day or two more we hope to have all difficulties adjusted with all lines and then we believe our subscribers will appreciate the improvement we have made.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

The Situation in the Eleventh District Attracts Attention.

Indianapolis, March 30.—Will Maj. Steele who was defeated for the Republican congressional nomination in the Eleventh district be a candidate for United States senator in case a successor is to be chosen to Charles W. Fairbanks? This question just now is receiving a great deal of attention from politicians. In the minds of most local followers of the political game there is little doubt that Senator Fairbanks will be the nominee for vice-president. This being the case they are anxious to size up the candidates for his seat in the senate. Already many names have been mentioned and while Maj. Steele has never been pushed prominently to the front as a possibility in the past consideration of candidates it is felt in many quarters that he will be a power to be reckoned with if a new senator is to be chosen. The fact that he has just met with defeat in his own district would seem perhaps to put him out of the running, but it is believed that the case is otherwise. Some shrewd politicians here believe the long conference between Steele and Fred Landis at Logansport Monday night was in regard to this very subject. That an agreement whereby the Eleventh district is to be lined up solidly for Steele was the result of the meeting is generally believed. If this plan is carried out it will also mean the burying of the hatchet by other politicians and that Landis and Steele will work to capture the gubernatorial nomination for Warren Sayre of Wabash. This would bring all former factions into a combine to secure Landis' continuance in congress, Steele for the senate and Sayre for governor.

The cause of civic improvement in this city has just been given a big boost by the declaration of Vice-President Davis of the water company that in the repairing of the canal bed which was drained through the breaking of the aqueduct a few days ago the company proposes to take into consideration the question of making the canal region a thing of beauty as well as of service. The company will dredge the bed deeper and wider and the dykes will be widened. These dykes will then be beautified by turning them into glass plots ornamented with flower beds and dotted with trees. In the past the canal region has for the most part been anything but beautiful. It ran through a poor part of the city where small cabins of negroes were located to a great extent and where filth and squalor prevailed. Since the company will be compelled to make a considerable outlay on repairs it will go further and spend several thousand dollars to make it beautiful at the same time. With the incentive given by the action of the water company the civic improvement association is hopeful of securing the co-operation of many other citizens. As many people will be forced to make extensive repairs to efface the marks of the flood they will be asked to take additional steps at the time such work is being done to add to the beauty of their homes.

The Indiana University Glee Club appear at the opera house here tonight. The club was at Columbus last night and of their entertainment the Morning Times says: "To a well filled house and an appreciative audience the Indiana University glee club, band and orchestra gave a splendid concert last night. It proved to be one of the finest of the kind ever heard here. The reader, W. P. Pfaff, made a hit with his clever selections and as a leader of the Rube band. The work of T. O. Sheckell, sketch artist, was one of the best features of the evening's entertainment. Mr. Williams, the soloist, has a pleasing voice of rich quality and wide range. In fact everything was of the best and Columbus will extend a welcome to the young men whenever they come again."

Writes a Letter About Vinol.

How Pale Women May Get Strength, Rich, Red Blood and the Bloom of Health in Their Faces.

A pale, bloodless face indicates trouble; it is a sign of weakness, and as we see so many right here in Seymour the following letter will interest many of our readers.

Mrs. E. H. Dunakin, State Chairman of Correspondence, Woman's Literary Union of Pennsylvania, writes: "I suffered for over a year with general debility and weakness: I had severe backaches, headaches, and was pale and nervous. My physician prescribed different remedies, but they did not seem to help me at all. A club associate recommended Vinol, as it had cured her of a severe stomach trouble. I tried it, and soon felt greatly improved, and after taking four bottles I can say I am free from all my troubles, and it has made me well once more. Several of my friends are using it with beneficial results for lung and stomach troubles and to restore lost strength."

MRS. E. H. DUNAKIN.

W. F. Peter Drug Co., say: "There is absolutely no need for people to drag around weak, pale, nervous, run-down and debilitated, for they guarantee that Vinol will in a natural manner build up the weak, give strength to the aged, restore color to pale faces, cure stomach troubles, nervousness, hard colds, hacking coughs and make rich, red blood. Containing as it does all the vitalizing principles of cod liver oil, without any oil to upset the stomach, Vinol is the most wonderful restorer of health and strength known to medicine; it is not a patent medicine, and is absolutely free from all harmful drugs.

If it fails to give satisfaction money is refunded without question, and it will pay every weak or ailing person in Seymour to try it on our guarantee. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Railroad Courtesy.

"Running trains over another line is an interesting detail in railroad work," said Stone Agent McHugh to the Telephone. "If a railroad gets in trouble by a wreck or a washout, and part of the schedule can be made by using the track of another road, the courtesy is always extended, and chief dispatchers have such instructions. For such courtesy, railroads charge 50 cents per mile for the train and the company using the courtesy must also pay for an engineer to go on the engine as a pilot and also for a conductor, in addition to actual expenses for coal and water. In addition to this the train must run as "extra" giving all regular trains right-of-way. Only private cars of other roads are hauled free as a courtesy by railroad companies."—Bloomington Telephone

Trials of Motherhood

I suffered for nine years with ovarian troubles making life a burden to myself as well as to my family. During that time I had two miscarriages and although we longed for a child to bless our home this seemed impossible. I had constant racking bearing-down pains in the pelvic organs and a pulling through my limbs with frequent headaches. I felt sick at my stomach and vomited frequently and no medicine helped me until I tried Wine of Cardui.

Then my general health improved, the pains gradually lessened and after 18 weeks I was well. I am now the happy mother of a boy eighteen months old and my husband joins me in sending heartfelt thanks to you for your splendid medicine. Without it, I would have been a childless, instead of a happy and well mother.

Mrs. Ernestine Madlinger
CHAPELAIN, ST. ANDREW'S ASSOCIATION.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui is the most successful menstrual regulator. By regulating menstruation, Wine of Cardui banishes inflammation from the entire female organism and the strengthened ligaments bring the organs back to their proper place. This is what Wine of Cardui did for Mrs. Madlinger. It banished the racking pains and burning inflammation and brought her relief. She was restored to health and strength and gives Wine of Cardui the credit of making her able to become a happy mother. This medicine equips a woman for every duty of wifehood and motherhood. There are many suffering women who think that health can never be theirs because they cannot secure the services of a great specialist, but we want to say right here that while Mrs. Nirdlinger lives in Philadelphia, a great medical center, she depended on Wine of Cardui for a cure and she was cured. This same medicine is within your reach. Will you take it?

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

FIXING RESPONSIBILITY

Teamsters' Officers Indicted in Connection With Riots.
St. Louis, March 30.—Indictments have been returned against six general officers of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, charging them with being accessories before the fact in connection with the assault on Basil Rutherford, a non-union teamster. The men indicted are: Cornelius P. Shea, Indianapolis, general president; Albert Young, Indianapolis, general organizer; Charles Robb, Chicago, sixth vice-president; William Rowbotham, Indianapolis, corresponding secretary; Daniel Thurman, Chicago, general secretary; George Innes, Indianapolis, one of the general organizers. The latter has been arrested and warrants have been issued for the arrest of the others.

Indictments were returned against Ernest Ruck, Michael Ryan and William Kelly, all of Chicago, charging them with committing the assault on Rutherford on Feb. 2. It is also charged in the indictments against the general officers of the teamsters' union that they imported thugs from Chicago to assault non-union drivers.

Ruck, Ryan and Kelly were witnesses before the grand jury. They had already given signed statements to the police officers in which the officers of the union are mentioned as having. It is alleged by the men, been instrumental in bringing them to St. Louis. The union drivers in St. Louis declared a strike last January and the differences between the liverymen and their employees have never been adjusted. More than 800 drivers are affected by the strike.

Ham, formerly Boston manager of the American Surety company of New York, has been sentenced to serve not less than fifteen nor more than twenty years in the state prison at hard labor. FOR THE BEST STORIES

Pencil Pushers Will be Given an Incentive to Keep Their Eyes Open on Coming Trip.

Details for the Summer Excursion to Canada Rapidly Nearing Completion.

Indianapolis, March 30.—The committee having charge of the Canadian trip which will be taken next July by the Allied Editorial association of Indiana is gradually completing the arrangements. The Dominion of Canada, the Winnipeg Industrial Exhibit association and the companies over whose lines the editors are to travel, are furnishing a great deal of literature concerning the route to be covered.

The department of the interior of Ottawa has added to the original itinerary and proposes to cover more points of interest, allowing at least one day and a half at Banff, a beautiful mountain resort. The trip will last about two weeks.

To lead the editors to keep their eyes open, the Canadian government offers $200 in prizes to the editors writing the best stories on the trip. The money will be divided into five prizes as follows: First, $60; second, $50; third, $40; fourth, $30; fifth, $20.

RAILROADS HEAVY LOSERS

Flood Played Havoc With Tracks in Monroe County.

Bloomington, Ind., March 30.—Detailed reports from the flood in Monroe county show that the loss will be many thousands of dollars. In addition to the loss of time and labor in stone quarries and mills. On Bean Blossom and Salt creeks, which run on opposite sides of the county, the water was never known to be so high. Fences were swept away, floodgates are gone and many barns and outbuildings in the lowlands were washed away. The loss to pikes running in all directions from the city is very heavy, as they are washed out in many places.

The quarries are flooded with water, some filled with water over fifty feet deep and pumps are going day and night to empty them. The contractors working on the Indianapolis Southern railroad have heavy losses. New grades have been washed away and embankments torn down by the rushing waters, and it will require hundreds of dollars to put them back in good condition.

May Never Come to Trial.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 30.—Judge Perry has ordered an allowance of $250 to the attorneys defending Benjamin Springer, colored, and an equal amount to the attorneys for Jerry Duggins, both of whom now are under sentence of death. This will exhaust the $500 appropriated by the county council, and there is now talk of dropping the prosecution of the eighteen men indicted for riot, growing out of the attempt to lynch Duggins, because of the heavy expense entailed. It is also said that justice has been sure and swift with the murderers, and that as a lesson has been taught, the cost of proceeding against the rioters would be greater than the object warrants.

A $30,000 Fire Loss.

Connersville, Ind., March 30.—A destructive fire came in the burning of one of the two large factory plants of the Ansted spring and axle works, causing a loss exceeding $30,000. The axle works department was burned and the other was saved only by great effort on the part of the city fire department. The insurance is $10,000. Sixty skilled workmen are thrown out of employment.

Fred Landis Renominated.

Peru, Ind., March 30.—Frederick K. Landis was renominated by the Republicans of the Eleventh district as their candidate for congress. But one ballot was required. This showed 78 delegates for Landis and 43 for Steele. Landis was declared the nominee on motion of Steele and the nomination was made unanimous.

Rural Carriers' Monthly Roll.

Indianapolis, March 30.—Frank L. Richmond, cashier of the Indianapolis postoffice, has finished making out the checks for the payment of rural carriers in Indiana for the month of March. There are 1,563 carriers on the pay roll this month and they will draw $75,000 for their month's work.

Strange Subject of Mortgage.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 30.—A chattel mortgage was filed in all seriousness on a gambling house outfit, naming faro layouts, roulette wheels, craps tables, etc. The mortgage was given by a saloon keeper named Houchins to the Terre Haute Brewing company.

Capt. Cornick Drowned.

Evansville, Ind., March 30.—Capt. John Cornick, of the steamer Kenos, plying in Green river, fell overboard and was drowned. The body was not recovered.
